

A Guide to AS/NZS 1170.2 2002 - Wind Actions

By John Holmes
& Andrew King

- A handy engineering guide to wind design in Australia and New Zealand
- Provides background information on the rationale behind the standard provisions
- Identifies and discusses changes from AS 1170.2 1989 & NZS 4203
- Includes answers to those Frequently Asked Questions
- Overall 94 pages of A4 of practical guidance on the design of structures for both frontal and cyclonic wind effects

Fully worked practical examples that relate to

- Houses
- Industrial building
- Multi-storey wind sensitive building
- Chimney
- Tower
- Sight Screen

Order Form: Please complete your details below. For seminar special hand in at the desk for your copy of this handy guide, otherwise fax to +644 528 2682

Name of Purchaser :

Company Name :

Address :

Phone () Email:

Number of copies $65.00 per copy (Inc p&p)

(circle one) I am paying cash / cheque payable to Warren Publishing for $.....

Or
Debit my credit card for $..... Name on card..... Signature

Please (✓) Visa Mastercard Expires /

--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--